

Programme Interdisciplinary Workshop SSSI, NERSC and partners

Relationships with ice, snow, and permafrost under change: catalyzing interdisciplinary perspectives

November 4 2021
Scandic Fornebu, Oslo

A workshop/ side-meeting to the Svalbard Science Conference 2021. The workshop/ side meeting is supported by Svalbard Strategic Grant

Programme:

08.30 Registration and coffee

09.30 Chair's welcome by SSF representative, SSSI Board and project leader from NERSC

09.45-11.00 Meet and Greet. Get to know each other and our ongoing research better

11.00-11.45 Short presentations from project representatives: CAPARDUS, CULTCOAST, SVALUR, BalancingAct, Tipping+, Face-It, SSSI, Nunataryuk and PRISMA (5 minutes each)

11.45-12.30 Invited speakers
Eugene Guribye, NORCE: Keynote on co-creation in research(Digital)
Hilde Fålun Strøm, Hearts in the ice: Citizen science building bridges between research and society

12.30 Networking lunch

13.30-14.30 Roundtable discussion of project overlaps, data sharing, and coordination of activities

14.30-15.00 Invited speaker Grete K. Hovelsrud, Research Professor, Nordland Research Institute. Co-producing knowledge for a sustainable Svalbard: Pitfalls and Surprises

15.00-15.30 Coffee break

15.30-17.00 Roundtable discussion on synergies and future research proposals on relations between society and the cryosphere based on the thematic approaches in the proposal to Svalbard Strategic Grant(Will be presented in the meeting)

17.00-17.15 Review of meeting and closing of workshop; scheduling next meeting. Thank you and goodbye, and some words on the next steps

Contact person for the side meeting/workshop:

Lisbeth.lversen@nersc.no
Cellular Phone: + 47 920 14 606

